

PRESIDENT'S FRIENDS VERY MUCH AROUSED

Roosevelt Receives a Great Many Letters from Admirers
Throughout Country.

LOEB STILL REMAINS SECRETIVE

Will Not Divulge Where Dinner Was and or at What Time—Tells Newspapers That They Are All Wrong
as Far as Details Are Concerned—
Penrose Still Under Suspicion.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—President Roosevelt is receiving a great many letters from different sections of the country regarding the combine, it is asserted, that is being formed to defeat Mr. Roosevelt. There is nothing as to the identity of the writers, but those who are close to the President say the disclosures have stirred up considerable feeling. The location and date of the dinner and personnel of the party attending at which the plot was to have been disclosed remains, so far as any information at the White House is vouchsafed, a secret.

"You gentlemen are all wrong as to the details of the dinner," is all that Secretary Loeb would tell the newspaper men today except to indicate that the affair was of an informal character and that the disclosures came out in an informal manner. Senator Bourne, of Oregon, it has been commonly reported, was the host at the dinner while the guests included, among others, Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, and Delegate Andrews, of New Mexico.

All at the White House yesterday. Comment was made upon the fact that three of these gentlemen called at the White House today and talked with the President. None of the callers would make any statement on the subject nor would any of them admit that his call at the White House had any connection with the matter.

Secretary Loeb said Senator Bourne had called on the President to discuss some land office appointments which had been hanging fire for a long time.

Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, whose name has been freely used in connection with the disclosures of the alleged plot, has not communicated with the White House since the story became public, according to Secretary Loeb, who stated today that the only information received there about him has come from the newspapers. When a report that Senator Penrose was going to the White House to talk about the matter with the President was called to Secretary Loeb's attention the latter said: "I have made no statement about him and the Senator has nothing to deny to me."

The Diagnosis.

The Gentleman Farmer (anxiously)—What in the world, Uncle Tootler, do you suppose is the matter with my hens? Why, this morning I found six of them lying on their backs, cold and stiff, with their feet sticking up in the air.

The Ancient Man (after a suitable season of cogitation)—Yer! hens is dead, Mr. Citty.—Puck.

The Different Views.

Belle—I do wish men wouldn't go out between the acts so often.
Nellie—I wish they wouldn't come in between drinks so often.—Cleve.

MRS. EDDY'S TRUSTEES WILL HAVE TO REPLY

Concord Judge Orders That They Shall Appear In Court to Answer
Bill of Plaintiffs.

WANT DEED OF TRUST VACATED

Frederick W. Peabody, One of the Lawyers for the Plaintiffs, Says It is an Admission of the Mental Unsoundness of the Founder of Christian Science.

(By Associated Press.)

CONCORD, N. H., April 6.—A supplemental bill in equity called for by the recent announcement that the property of Mrs. Eddy has been transferred to three trustees, was filed in the Merrimack County Court today by the original plaintiff "for next friends" in the suit for an accounting of Mrs. Eddy's property. The bill filed today was the answer of the plaintiffs to the motion made by the defendants last Tuesday that three trustees, Archibald McLellan, of Boston; Henry M. Baker, of Bow, and Josiah F. Fernald, of this city, be substituted "for the next friends" and be empowered to prosecute the suits against the defendants in the case, who are all prominent members of the Christian Science church. The answer is in the form of a supplemental petition and asks that the three trustees be added to the list of defendants on the ground that the trustees are working for the same ends as the original defendants, that is, that they are unduly influencing Mrs. Eddy and managing her property to their own purposes.

Judge Robert N. Chamberlain issued an order that all the defendants including the original defendants and three trustees shall appear in court on April 15 to make answer to the petition filed today. The supplemental bill also asks that the deed of trust be vacated on the ground that Mrs. Eddy was not competent to execute it and it was a device contrived by the defendants to defeat the purpose of the original suit.

Views of F. W. Peabody.
BOSTON, MASS., April 6.—Frederick W. Peabody, of this city, of counsel for the plaintiffs in the suit for an accounting of the property of Mary Baker G. Eddy, in a statement with reference to the deed of trust proceedings, said today:
"The status of the three alleged trustees will not be assumed but must be proven. They are not trustees if the instrument upon which they rely is of no validity, and the validity of the instrument can be determined only by a judicial determination of the mental capability of the person who is alleged to have made it." The attempted creation of the trustees is an admission of the incompetency of Mrs. Eddy's personality to administer her business and property and such an admission involves the further admission of incompetency to dispose of it by deed or otherwise. I am confident we shall have no difficulty in having the alleged trust instrument invalidated because of Mrs. Eddy's condition of mental unsoundness."

Their Power.

Manager—I can't do a thing with Smith, the new clerk. I've had him in three departments, and he sleeps all day long.

Proprietor—Put him at the pajama counter and fasten this card on him: "Our night clothes are of such a superior quality that even the assistant who sells them cannot keep awake."—Tit-Bits.

The Apparent Reason.
"Wyndley doesn't play the cornet any more, does he?"
"No, he thought he'd better give it up."

"Bad for his lungs, eh?"
"It wasn't that. One of the neighbors shot two keys off the instrument while he was playing it."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
